

Rosechapeau

©Hilari Ford, 2006

I created this hat for my friend, Rose. Her favorite color is pink and since she is lucky enough to attend college at Point Loma Nazarene right on the beach, I thought she needed a more lacy, all-weather type chapeau. Since it takes less than 121 yards you can splurge on a nice, luxe yarn! Enjoy!

Yarn: Filatura Di Crosa Baby/Zarella Baby Print by Tahki Stacy Charles
1 skein, 121 yards

Needles: Size 7 Circls, (Addi Turbos, 12" – perfect for hats)

Gauge: 4.5 stitches to the inch

CO 88 stitches. Place marker and join for working in the round.
Work in stockinette stitch (knit every row) for 2".

Lace pattern:

Row 1: YO, SSK – repeat to end of round.

Row 2: Knit

Row 3: SSK, YO

Row 4: Knit

Be nice, and don't steal! This is my original pattern and I don't care if you post it on your site or even make hats to sell at craft fairs, but don't be taking credit for the pattern or using it to teach a class – that's just not right! ©Hilari Ford

<http://makeme.typepad.com>

Repeat rows 1-4 three times (rows 1-12)

Return to stockinette stitch for 2.25"

Lace pattern:

Row 1: YO, SSK

Row 2: Knit

Row 3: SSK, YO

Row 4: Knit

Start Decreases:

Knit 9, K2tog

Knit

Knit 8, K2tog

Knit

Knit 7, K2tog

Knit

Knit 6, K2tog

Knit

Knit 5, K2tog

Knit 4, K2tog

Knit 3, K2tog

Knit 2, K2tog

Knit 1, K2tog

K2tog

Cut yarn leaving about a 7" tail. Remove marker. Thread tail end of yarn through needle and close top of hat. Weave in ends. Steam lightly. Wear with insouciance.

Be nice, and don't steal! This is my original pattern and I don't care if you post it on your site or even make hats to sell at craft fairs, but don't be taking credit for the pattern or using it to teach a class – that's just not right! ©Hilari Ford
<http://makeme.typepad.com>